Meet Your Hosts – Oxblood Molly

Oxblood Molly have been dancing in their marvellous pillar box red and black since 2005. In 2015, we decided to celebrate ten years of dancing, so we invited a few other sides to have a dance with us in Halesworth, but it got a bit big, and the rather fabulous Halesworth Day of Dance came about, still going eight years on. Another ten years on we celebrate our twentieth; China, anniversary (hence the cup logo). Oxblood meets at Halesworth Co-op on Sunday mornings at 10:30. New members are always welcome.

We especially thank Maureen Hunter, our wonderful musician who has stuck with Oxblood since day one.

If you are new to Halesworth, do have a look around at our wonderful shops, parks, art galleries, churches and museum. There are also plenty of lovely places to eat and drink.
